Volume 23 Number 5

May 2019

The Uxbridge Public Library will be closed Monday, May 20 for Victoria Day.

"Turning the page"
"Turning over a new leaf"
"A new chapter"

... all expressions of hope and progress
... and all reflecting the significance of books and of reading
-and of libraries- to our lives and to the well being of our community

Turning the page— in clay, to be cast in bronze.
Hand is approx. life size

The Uxbridge Public Library has commissioned this sculpture to recognize the importance of books and libraries— and in remembrance of Alexandra Hartmann, who had worked at the library for 15 years, and was the CEO when she passed away in September 2018.

The sculpture, to be cast in bronze, has been created by Uxbridge sculptor Wynn Walters, who also created the Col. Sam Sharpe statue across the road. It will be installed beside the main entrance, facing the street, but also visible from inside. The sculpture will be financed by donations— in honour of Alex, and in support of the library. It will be a significant addition to public art in the Uxbridge area, as a gift to the community from the library.

Donations may be made at the library, or sent to Uxbridge Public Library, 9 Toronto St. South P O Box 279, Uxbridge ON L9P 1P7. Donations of $20 or more will receive a tax receipt. Cheques should be made out to "Uxbridge Public Library" (notation: Sculpture)

Ecumenical Accompaniment Program in Palestine and Israel (EAPPI)

Presented by Adele Boy

Adele is a retired secondary school teacher. Her strong faith has led her through the long journey to become a member of the team known as the Ecumenical Accompaniment Program in Palestine and Israel. She feels it is a privilege to act out her faith in a practical manner as peace and justice has been a concern for her for many years. Working towards peace and justice for all is the bottom line for Adele.

The Ecumenical Accompaniment Program in Palestine and Israel (EAPPI) is an international, ecumenical program that recruits and dispatches observers (known as Ecumenical Accompaniers— EAs) to several Palestinian towns and villages to monitor the interaction between the Palestinian inhabitants and the Israeli military.

Please join us May 11th at 2 pm to enjoy Adele's presentation about her experience working and documenting the abuses of International Human Rights Law and Humanitarian Law in Palestine.

This presentation is free.

Please pre-register ahead in the Adult Department.

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL BOOK CLUB

AWARENESS + ACTION = A DIFFERENT KIND OF BOOK CLUB

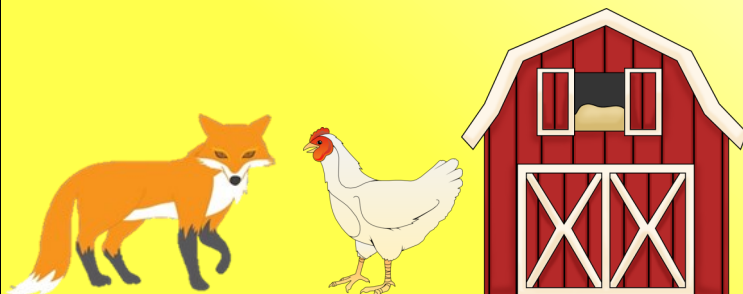

BOOK CLUB TO GO

Did you know that you can borrow multiple copies of one book as a Book Club To Go Set!

We have over 50 titles available as book club sets to loan to you for a 6 week time frame.

Thank you Krista and Tamara for sharing your poem with us for Poetry Month!

There once was a fox that liked to sneak and a fluffy white chicken with a yellow beak
There was this barn
and a ball of yarn
And the coop so the fox couldn't peak.

The Library will be closed
Thursday, June 6th
for staff training

Please use our book return at the side of the library to return any items. Items can be renewed online at www.uxlib.com or by telephone at 905-852-9747.

We are Looking for Volunteers

If you need volunteer hours or want to help the library, we are currently looking for people who are interested in helping us expand our book delivery service to senior living residents who are unable to make it to the library themselves. If you are interested or would like more information please email Jen at jennifer.thorson@uxlib.com.
