Assumption of Risks

This camp program may involve certain elements of risk. Accidents may occur while participating in activities, which may cause injury or illness (e.g. running, other physical activities). These accidents result from the nature of the activity and can occur without any fault on either the part of the student, or the Uxbridge Public Library or its employees or volunteers, or the facility where the activity is taking place. By choosing to participate in the activity, you are assuming the risk of an accident occurring. The chance of an accident occurring can be reduced by carefully following instructions at all times while engaged in the activity.

While Uxbridge Public Library staff will make every reasonable effort to minimize exposure to known risks associated with participation in summer programs, I hereby acknowledge that I and/or my child if I am registering on his/her behalf, may be required, depending on the nature of the program, to participate in various physical activities that may involve risk of injury. In this regard, I agree that I have provided a complete and accurate health history and hereby permit the child to participate in the full range of program activities, except as specifically noted by me in the health information section of the program registration (where applicable).

In consideration for the child's opportunity to participate in the program, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, I hereby release and forever discharge the Uxbridge Public Library, its respective officers, directors, employees, volunteers, and agents, and their respective successors and assigns, from any and all liability for damages sustained in consequence of loss, injury or damage to the child, and from all other actions, causes of action, claims, demands or damages of any kind with respect to death, injury, loss or damages to any person or property arising out of or connected with preparation for, or participation in, the program.
